Fran Perea presents Canciones para salvarme, an EP with four powerful and dynamic pop songs - 'Canciones para salvarme', '37 grados', 'Cantando bajo la luna' and 'El Norte'— which when performed live on stage comprise a complete show of music, poetry and performing arts.

The projection of images painted live by a graphic artist, a visit to fragments of classic theatre and a reading of some of Perea's own texts alternate with a review of the major classics of his discography, such as La chica de la habitación de al lado, Punto y aparte, Viejos conocidos and Viaja la palabra, some of them with new versions that are more in tune with his more mature style..

In the words of the musician, actor, theatre director and businessman from Malaga, Canciones para salvarme is "elixir made song as a tribute to music; the result of present times and how music is helping us navigate them".
